

Used Travel Trailer Checklist

Here's a starter list to get you going. As you work on choosing your new trailer, be sure to develop your own checklist that includes everything that's important to you. Some of the items may prevent you from buying, while others may just be things you need to address once you've purchased.

Trailer (Make/Model, Contact Info, etc)

Notes (Likes/Dislikes)

Work Needed

OUTSIDE

Rating	Priority	Description	Notes
		Do you like it?
		Overall condition
		Condition of finish
		Condition of awning (if equipped)
		Condition of tires / Is there a good spare?
		Do the brakes work?
		Condition of windows & screens
		Do all the lights and electrical outlets work?
		Does it have a good battery?
		Condition of the A/C connecting power cord
		Condition of the tow vehicle wiring harness
		Condition of propane tank(s) & hoses (if equipped)
		Do the sewer valves slide easily? (if equipped)

INSIDE

Rating	Priority	Description	Notes
		Do you like it?
		Does the layout (floorplan) meet your needs?
		Does it have enough storage to meet your needs?
		Overall condition
		Does it smell?
		Are there any signs of leaks?
		Does all the plumbing work? (if equipped)
		Do all the lights and electrical outlets work?
		Does the air conditioning (and/or fans) work? (if equipped)
		Does the stove work? (if equipped)
		Do the door and window locks work?
		Are the table(s) and seats stable?	